

Press Release

Die ecke begins its activities this year 2008, April the 7th at 8 pm, with the opening of Sebastián Mahaluf's show entitled Desdoble/Duplico.

With this exhibition Mahaluf finishes a series of actions developed under the project Nómade which began with the exhibition Mnémica, held at Die ecke in 2005. In this opportunity Mahaluf resumes this long period of work through the "mise en place" of different objects related with the place and the time as a flexible and unstable surface.

The artist presents 5 objects related to the matters of his investigation such as a cylinder knitted with elastics bands, a digital self-portrait and a small transparent volumetric map all of them illuminated and connected between each other. In this exhibition something will be revealed, unfolded or doubled according to the interpretation of the viewer.

The exhibition will be open until April the 11th.
