

Press release

Die ecke opens October 5, Benjamín Marambio solo exhibition entitled Works to understand(me).

Marambio, graduated in 2000 from the Universidad de Chile, travelled in 2004 to Canada to get a Master degree in 3D animation at the Vancouver Film School.

Through two great classic ways of representation, landscape and portrait, Benjamín Marambio shows in this exhibition 3D animation videos and photographs representing his personal vision of a journey and giving the viewers the elements to create a vision of the artist's personal environment and living experiences.

Through photographs and videos the artist tries to present us the way to create a vision; an autobiography built up with outer elements but appropriated in order to represent genuinely his enchained emotions and personal paths.

Resuming in Marambio's words: "Look to understand and understand me"

The exhibition will be open until November 2.
